

MP Caseworker of the Year Competition

The Unite Parliamentary Staff Branch Caseworker of the Year Competition is open to all staff of MPs. Caseworkers cannot nominate themselves but nominations are welcomed from co-workers, MPs and organisations outside Parliament. Please fill in this form and include the reasons for your nomination.

You may want to provide specific details of a particularly difficult case, instead or as well as general information about this person's work. There is no limit on the number of nominations an individual can receive and more nomination forms are available from Kevin Flack.

Please return the forms to Kevin Flack using the contact details below:
